

Trail Name Suggestions from VOGA, Community and DJARRA

Proposed name	Why did you choose this name?	Origin
Admiral	A trail that offers a commanding and authoritative riding experience, suitable for riders who like to take charge.	Community bakurruk	magpie	DJARRA
balim balim	butterfly, moth	DJARRA
balotj	cherry ballart	DJARRA
banyindjuk	its small (the possum)	DJARRA
bap gumawa	jump	DJARRA
barramal	emu	DJARRA
batak	take care (be caution from danger)	DJARRA
batjan mum	'koala' (batjan 'tree fork', mum 'bottom')	DJARRA
Bronzewing	A common bird found in the area.	Community dartanitj gunkun	white flower	DJARRA
djayi bangga	digging in the ground	DJARRA
djinanyuk yuwapa	his, her or its feet is fast'	DJARRA
djinyap	sulphur-crested cockatoo	DJARRA
djuwangguk	long track	DJARRA
galki wawa	climbing on a tree	DJARRA
gatakarr	corella	DJARRA
gatjin	water	DJARRA
Golden Nuggets	Referencing the area's rich gold history. Trail offers hidden treasures or highlights, much like finding golden nuggets while prospecting.	Community
Goldmine	Referencing local history	VOGA
Graminifolia	Trail named after the local bird orchid which are present in the area.	Community
Green Apple	Green Trails located near to an historic apple orchrd where you can still see the trees today. Trees planted by ealy settlers.	Community
gur	sweet flower or blossom with nectar from a tree	DJARRA gurnmil	snake' (gurn - 'neck', -wil 'having')	DJARRA gurra	eastern grey kangaroo	DJARRA
guwak	laughing Kookaburra	DJARRA
Jumping Jacks	In reference to native ant found in the area, description suitable for the type of trail	VOGA
Kingfisher	In reference to the local birdlife, particularly the Kookaburra who will watch overhead and laugh as you endeavour to ride the rock gardens	VOGA
laa nyirr	rocky gully	DJARRA
Lakeside	hub by St Georges. Trails end at St Georges Lake	VOGA
mang dutjiyi	rest here!' (name for trail head)	DJARRA

martuk	its strong (the wind)	DJARRA
mayuka djayi	low to the ground	DJARRA
mayuka galk galk	under the log	DJARRA
Mining Expedition	Homage to the area's mining history or suggest a trail that explores rugged terrain, akin to an adventurous expedition.	Community munyankil	white winged chough	DJARRA
ngur ngur	wombat	DJARRA
Pine Express	Trail is a very technical and fast trail that winds its way through HVP pine plantations.	VOGA
Prospector	Highlighting the gold rush era and its impact on the area.	Community
Puddling Path	Named after the local gold mining technique used in Creswick. Evidence of puddling machines can be seen in the area near the trails	Community
Quartz Ridge	Named for the common mineral found in the area, associated with gold mining.	Community
Rainbow Way	Rainbows signifying many things to many people. Aboriginal, LGTBQI + community, those who've lost a pet and those who just love the colours of nature. The name Rainbow Way would automatically make people smile and create either a happy or reflective walk, especially when associated with water.	Community
Rakali	Native Australian Water rat, trail goes down to the lake where you will see this animal	VOGA
Riverside Gold	Reference a nearby river or stream, suggesting a scenic trail with views of water, or it could symbolize the value or richness of the riding experience.	Community
Rock Pigeon	Local bird found in Creswick Forest, description suitable for the type of trail	VOGA
Sawyer	Commemorating the timber industry and those who worked in it.	Community
waa	Australian raven	DJARRA
warami galk galk	over the log	DJARRA
werpil	wedge tail eagle	DJARRA
Windlass	Name for the small homemade winding devices that wound the wash dirt up from all of the mine shafts. This device was used by local miners.	Community wiran	yellow tailed black cockatoo	DJARRA
wire	brush tail rock wallaby	DJARRA
witjikwil	bird' (witjik 'feather', -wil 'having' = feathered creature)	DJARRA
wiyal	narrow leafed peppermint gum	DJARRA
Wombat Hollow	Named after the native wombat, a key species in the local environment. Evidence of their burrows can be seen all around the trails sites.	Community

Wood Coup	Description of surroundings, flow trail generally means you are riding faster and railing berms like a train.	VOGA
Woollen	Creswick is well known for the woollen mills that are still located in the area. Name for a trail that is curly, or curved like wool.	Community
Yam Daisy	Local native flower that was used as food to the local inhabitants before sheep were introduced. As you climb up the trail, the rider has the time to spot the flowers which can be rare.	VOGA
yapuka	bird	DJARRA
yulawil	echidna (yula - 'spike', -wil 'having')	DJARRA